

Ukrainian painter Anatoly Kryvolap has been called the “Master of Color” by local artists – and for good reason. His “Sensory Overload” exhibition, which runs until Nov. 2 at ARTEast, is a collection of vibrant, abstract oil-canvas paintings. (www.arteast.org)